Lockdown Edition (Pt. 1) June 2020

House Challenges

Welcome to the first lockdown edition of the Wolfreton Bulletin! In this newsletter we aim to celebrate some of the more positive things that have been happening since the school closed in March, starting in this one with the weekly House Challenges.

The Heads of House decided to create a series of Challenges for students to take part in every week in order to keep the House spirit alive during lockdown. Keep reading to see what has been happening so far...

Week 1 - VE Day

The main event during the week that we launched the House Challenges was VE Day, so we took this as our theme for the first Challenge. We asked you to share how you were celebrating the 75th Anniversary of VE Day and we were stunned by how you responded! Here is what you got up to...

5th Place

Phoebe (WF) who impressed the judges with her decorative window display complete with bunting!

4th Place

Jack (TN) who wowed by creating a PowerPoint presentation with images and text to suggest how people could celebrate in their area.

VE Day 75th Anniversary

3rd Place

Kian (RN) who showed off his famous baking skills and held a VE day buffet – it all looks delicious!

2nd Place

Daniella (ON) who entertained the judges with her Vera Lynn performance and VE day images.

1st Place Lucia (NG) who delivered VE day boxes, complete with handmade biscuits, cards and other goodies for her neighbours (some of whom were present at the VE Day celebrations of 1945).

Do you have any suggestions for what we could do in future House Challenges? Send your suggestions through to your Head of House on the school email, or tweet us your suggestions!

Stories by Miss Atkinson & Miss Hull

Thank you to all those that have taken part in the House Challenges so far, and thank you to Mr. Carruthers and Ms. Wood for judging!

Look out for the next edition of The Wolfreton Bulletin featuring some of your lockdown Stories!

Week 2 - The Limerick Challenge

During the second week of the House Challenges was National Limerick Day, so of course this was to be your next challenge! What poets you all are!

5th Place - Millie, Rowntree

There was once an old man called Heath,
He lost his false set of teeth.
Although they had been laid on a chair,
He forgot he put them there,
Sat down and he was bitten beneath.

4th Place - Daisy, Nightingale

I have a big fat pug
Who rolls around on the rug
He is very greedy
But also super speedy
But the thing he does best is give you a hug.

3rd Place - Ana, Owen

In quarantine I'll do some doodles
And dream about tasty apple strudels
I'll bake the queen of hearts a tart
I'll turn a Sainsburys bag to art
Then I'll paint my Nana's pinky poodles

2nd Place - Zara, Wilberforce

1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8
Could it just be fate
Finally keepie uppies more than 2
Is it really true
Next is 10, guess I'll have to wait.

1st Place - Daniel, Tomlinson

There was a young man called Daniel,
Who, in lockdown, had hair like a spaniel,
He needs a haircut,
Cos he looks like a mutt,
So he's studying a hairdressing manual.

Week 3 - #BeKind

This week's focus was mental health and, more specifically, being kind. We challenged you to get creative with hearts. This is how you responded...

5th Place - Chloe, Tomlinson

Chloe has been volunteering for North Ferriby Riding for the Disabled and chose to create her heart using the horses' hay!

4th Place - Emily, Wilberforce

A tasty treat full of kindness! This #BeKind gesture was created in the kitchen—excellent cooking skills on display!

3rd Place - Erin, Nightingale

A fab creative and colourful entry, looking at the different aspects of mental health.

2nd Place - Gracie, Rowntree

A lot of time was clearly spent embroidering and framing this heart! Some great textile skills being shown!

1st Place - Daniela, Owen

A paper version of a heart giving lots of information about mental health awareness and where to find support.

Week 4 - Keepie Uppies

The next challenge was to see how many toilet roll keepie uppies you could do. Mr. Slater set the bar high with 29, but this was smashed by some awesome efforts! Here are the scores...

5th Place - Mr. Thornham, Wilberforce (15)

4th Place - Alisha, Tomlinson (12)

3rd Place - Ollie, Nightingale (13)

2nd Place - Warren, Owen (52)

1st Place - Brad, Rowntree (59)
